PRESS RELEASE

U.S. PRINCIPAL DEPUTY ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF STATE
FOR SOUTH AND CENTRAL ASIAN AFFAIRS DONALD CAMP
ARRIVES IN DHAKA ON SUNDAY

DHAKA, JANUARY 31 -- Mr. Donald Camp, Principal Deputy Assistant Secretary of State for South and Central Asian Affairs, arrives Sunday for a two-day visit to Bangladesh. Mr. Camp is the seniormost Department of State official to have visited Bangladesh since the Caretaker Government took office in January 2007. The purpose of his visit is to reaffirm U.S. support for Bangladesh in the wake of cyclone Sidr and to hold discussions with the Government on implementation of the electoral roadmap. In addition to meetings with Government officials, Mr. Camp will exchange views with representatives of civil society, political parties, and the business community. Mr. Camp is a career foreign service officer who has specialized in South Asian affairs.
